GOOD ROADS AND THE COST OF LIVING

No matter how heavy taxation for war purposes may be, the community must keep up its ordinary every day facilities for doing business. Good roads are the foremost of those facilities. They are a part of the general scheme for national preparedness. The country can not be efficient unless it provides highways over which our produce can be hauled at the least expense for truckage.

One of the items in cost of living is the expense of hauling produce over bad roads. Whenever a community improves its roads, it can put its products on the market for less money. If it gets the same prices that other people get, its producers are able to do business for the minimum expense and they prosper correspondingly.

Labor, horseflesh, gasoline and motor trucks cost high. A pair of horses working on a smooth hard road will do the work of two pairs on bad road. The cost of help is likewise cut in two.

Many places that are some distance from the railroads, yet are able to get their farm produce to market cheaply by having a good road over which to draw it. They get all the advantages of inexpensive living that go with the country, and at the same time pay only a reasonable charge for hauling. It is a sound basis for prosperity and can not be beaten.

Rough, uneven pavements in the business portion of towns also add to the wear and tear and expense of doing business. Horses haul loads over such streets with difficulty, and can not draw heavy weights. It takes more gasoline for motors, and increases the strain on the machinery of a truck. All these expenses are finally settled by the consumer.

But because people do not get it in tangible form like a tax bill, they do not realize that they have to pay it. These are things to ponder when the time of year comes for work on the roads, and when some people are inclined to growl about the heavy highway bills.

DEAL WITH MEN YOU KNOW

Don't expect the impossible of your town and its merchants. Be sure first, before you complain of the goods and prices of home merchants, that you haven't had a hand in making it impracticable for our merchants to handle the kind of goods you want at the prices you can pay. Merchants are not mind readers nor are they blind to their own best interests. If they haven't own best interests. If they haven't what you want they will get it for you at as low or lower price than you can get it anywhere else. They deserve to be given an opportunity to do so anyhow; but if they do not deserve it you will be doing yourself a bigger favor than you will be doing them you know and that can be held personally accountable for their promises and performances. Try this for a rule of trading hereafter.

Also there are some philanthropists who expects a dollar's worth of gratitude for a dime's worth of charity.

Also, as a general thing, when a little girl is the picture of health she is mostly a moving picture.

TO REDUCE TRAINS

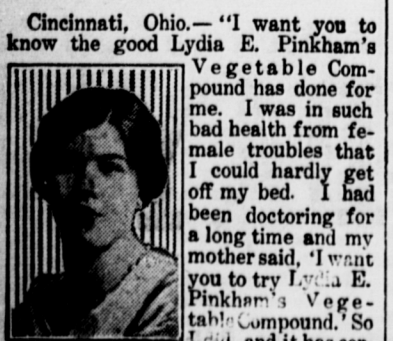

Huntington, W. Va., May 22—The Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad company has asked permission of the West Virginia public service commission by an informal petition to take off a number of passenger trains on their main line and branches. The company claims that the demand for motive power to carry coal and other supplies needed by the Nation during the war makes it imperative to take care of the freight situation at once by reducing passenger service.

The railroad did not indicate, in the petition, what trains will be dispensed with, and it is understood officials are undecided just what trains can be cut off.

There will be no trains taken off of this division according to a statement made by Superintendent J. B. Harris of the Cincinnati division, who was here several days ago.

MOTHER SAID TRY IT

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Mrs. Copner after Doctor's Failed.

Cincinnati, Ohio.—"I want you to know the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was in such bad health from female troubles that I could hardly get off my bed. I had been doctoring for a long time and my mother said, 'I want you to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.' So I did, and it has certainly made me a well woman. I am able to do my house work and am so happy as I never expected to go around the way I do again, and I want others to know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. JOSIE COPNER, 1608 Harrison Ave., Fairmount, Cincinnati, Ohio.

No woman suffering from any form of female troubles should lose hope until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from choice roots and herbs, has for forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

MANY CHEWING GUM

Washington, D. C., May 23—Thousands of pounds of gum chewed in the New York subway and elsewhere throughout the country last year was only a drop in the bucket as compared to what the world in general chewed. It is even a smaller amount when compared with which busy molars throughout the world will masticate during the present fiscal year. During the first nine months of the present fiscal year chewing gum shipments aggregated $25,500 in value. In 1894, total exports of chewing gum were valued at $2,658; in 1895, they were valued at $1,709, and in 1896, $289.

PRESBYTERIAN RESOURCES PLEDGED TO U. S. IN WAR

Dallas, Texas, May 22—The support of 6,000,000 Presbyterians and the resources of the Presbyterian church in the prosecution of the war were pledged to President Wilson and the nation in resolutions adopted today by the general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States of America. The resolutions will be read from the pulpits of all the Presbyterian churches represented by the assembly.

NEWSPAPERS USED TO STOP WOUNDS ON BATTLEFIELD

New York, May 23—Because of lack of sufficient surgical dressings newspapers are being used on the battlefields of France to stop the wounds of many soldiers, according to a cable message received by the American Red Cross and made public here tonight. The situation is described as very serious. Rather than bleed to death the soldiers, it is said, run the risk of gangrene and other infection by using the newspapers. An appeal is made for increased supplies of dressings.

STRODE-DIXON

The marriage of Miss Mary Evans Strode to Mr. Paul Everett Dixon, of Bowling Green, Ky., was a beautiful event in society Wednesday. It was celebrated at 9 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Gay Strode, on Forest avenue, the Rev. J. W. Porter and the Rev. Mark Collis officiating. The wedding colors were pink and white and the decorations were elaborate and in exquisite taste. The halls, drawing room and library were thrown together and as a setting stately palms stood against the walls and were banked in pyramids before the mantels.

Before the ceremony, as the guests assembled, Mr. Bruce Reynolds with his violin and Mrs. Margaret Foster Acosta at the piano rendered a charmingly selected program, playing for the coming of the bridal procession, the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin. As it sounded, the ribbon bearers, Miss Altha Thompson, cousin of the bride, and Mr. Owen Reynolds came from the stairway through the hall and drawing room carrying broad, white satin streamers to each end of the altar to form the aisle. Then followed the two lovely bridesmaids, Misses Carrie Lee Jones and Ernestine Perry, came slowly alone down the stairway and met the groomsmen, Mr. S. A. Greener, of Bowling Green, and Mr.

Preston Cherry, of Morgantown. Miss Thomson and the two maids were beautiful gowns of pale green tulle over chiffon trimmed with silver lace and the bridesmaids' bouquets were pink sweet peas and valley lilies tied with pink tulle. The matron of honor, Mrs. Allison Trig, of Glasgow, a sister of the bride-groom, walked alone. She was charming in flesh-colored tulle over satin with lace trimmings and carried an armful of pink sweet peas and valley lilies tied with tulle.

As they passed to the altar the bride-groom with his best man, his brother, Mr. James A. Dixon, of Bowling Green, came from the library and the couple joined for the beautiful ceremony, during which "At Dawning" was softly played. For the blessing the couple knelt on white satin cushions and after the prayer the joyful strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march sounded and congratulations were showered upon the happy couple. The bride was charming in her exquisite wedding robe of white Duchess lace, an elegant heirloom over tulle and white satin. It was elaborately trimmed with pearls and from the shoulders fell the court train. Her tulle veil was fastened in her hair with pearls and she carried a shower of valley lilies and white sweet peas.

Later in the evening they left for a trip of several weeks and on their return will make their home in Bowling Green, going immediately to house-keeping. The bride is the only daughter of the home, and a favorite in the younger social set who will be much missed. She is charming and attractive and loved and admired by all who knew her. Mr. Dixon is a son of Mrs. Dixon and the late Dr. James A. Dixon, of Bowling Green. He is handsome and attractive and has a host of Lexington friends. He is a graduate of the class of 1915 in law at the University of Kentucky and is now one of the most promising young attorneys in his city.

Mr. and Mrs. Strode, with the bride-groom's mother, Mrs. James A. Dixon, and Mr. Strode's father, Dr. J. T. Strode, received the guests. Mrs. Strode was handsome in a gown of pale gray Georgette crepe over satin with trimmings of beads and lace. Mrs. Dixon wore a beautiful gown of black lace. Assisting were Mr. and Mrs. Hall Strode of Maysville, and Miss Mary Louise Warren. The guests included relatives and most intimate friends and about one hundred and fifty were present. The wedding was one of the most beautiful and interesting events of Spring and the host of friends of the couple join in wishing them a long life of much happiness.

INCREASING POULTRY PRODUCTS IN THE UNITED STATES

Washington, D. C., May 17—The statement made at the recent agricultural conference at St. Louis that the poultry products of the United States could be doubled within a year means that if everybody in a position to help did their part six hundred million dollars worth of food would be added to our supply this year.

This includes both meat for the table and eggs. Very few farmers practice a systematic plan of disposing of their fowls after they have ceased to be productive, although it is well known that fowls of the heavier breeds, such as the Plymouth Rocks, cease to produce a profitable number of eggs at the end of their second laying year, and that this holds true of the lighter breeds, such as the Leghorns, at the end of their third laying year. Consequently, if efforts were made to dispose of all females when their best laying days were over a large quantity of poultry meat would be placed on the market. All poorly developed chickens should likewise be culled out and used as meat. This way of disposing of unprofitable fowls would allow the farmer to feed his grain to younger and more productive fowls.

Caponizing the cockerels that are not intended for breeding purposes will not only increase their size but will place a more desirable poultry meat on the market. Another practice that should be adopted more widely is that of fattening all chickens that are to be marketed before they leave the farm. This can be done easily by confining the birds for a week or ten days and feeding them a good fattening ration. They will come to market then in better condition and the farmer will receive a profit for their added weight.

The greater production turkeys, ducks, geese, and guineas, all of which can be profitably raised and a ready market found in most sections, would increase the supply of poultry meat considerably. The production of ducks especially should be emphasized at this time, because of the rapidity with which they grow. Ducks of most of the meat breeds, properly fed and managed, frequently weigh from five to six pounds at ten weeks of age. It is estimated by poultrymen making a specialty of growing ducks that the feed cost per pound of producing duck meat ranges from 8 cents to 12 cents, depending upon the current prices of grain and other feeds.

Increasing The Supply of Eggs
The number of marketable eggs can be increased by following a few practical suggestions. Among the most important of these are the production of the infertile egg after the breeding season is over, and the proper handling of eggs by the farmer before sending them to market. The infertile egg is obtained when all male birds are removed from the flock. This does not decrease the number of eggs produced, but it does increase greatly their keeping qualities. The production of the infertile egg and the proper handling and marketing

GOOD BACKS FOR BAD

Maysville Residents Are Learning How to Exchange the Old Back For a Stronger One.

Does your back ache, feel weak and painful? Do you suffer headaches, languor and depression? The kidneys may be calling for help.

Weak kidneys cannot do their work. Give them the help they need. To cure a kidney backache you must cure the kidneys.

Use a tested and proven kidney remedy. Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test.

Convincing proof of merit in Maysville endorsement:

Mrs. M. Holliday, 221 W. Second St., Maysville, says: "At times, my back has ached across my kidneys. My kidneys have been irregular in action and I have had dizzy spells and headaches. I have always used Doan's Kidney Pills, getting them at Wood & Son's Drug Store, and they have never failed to relieve these complaints."

Mrs. Holliday is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mrs. Holliday had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. marketable eggs each year by diminishing the quantity that are rendered unfit for food.

An increased production of ducks' eggs is advisable where available markets are found.

The poultry house should be clean and sanitary and the fowls free from insect pests, thereby preventing disease and mortality. It is estimated that nearly $9,000,000 worth of poultry is lost each year through disease alone. Special attention should be given to the feeding and housing of laying fowls at seasons of the year when their natural source of food supply is cut off.

General Increase in Poultry Products

Although the hatching season proper should be considered at an end by May 1, it may be feasible in some sections of the northern and northwestern part of this country to continue hatching until the first of June. Chicks hatched at that time, with proper feed and management, will frequently begin laying in January of the following year. The maturity of fowls hatched late can be greatly increased if the mother hens are confined until the chicks are weaned. In this way feed that is furnished the chicks produces growth, instead of energy to follow the mother. Extra precautions should be taken in the late spring and early summer to keep the young birds free from lice and disease, both of which cause thousands to die every year. More general use of the incubator will increase considerably the output of chickens, and consequently the number of layers the following year.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture and the several State agricultural colleges will be glad to supply helpful information to anyone interested in raising poultry on a large or small scale.

Comprise the Cast of the Senior Class Play, "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary," Which Will Be Given Tonight.

The annual Senior Class play of the Maysville High School will be given in the auditorium of that building tonight at 8 o'clock. The play to be given will be "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary," and those who have seen the practices say that it is one of the best ever attempted by the students of the school.

The following is the cast of the play:
Aunt Mary Watkins... Mary Boyd Tully
Jack, her nephew... Harlow Caplinger Betty Burnett... Margaret Downing
"Clover"... Steven Owens
Mitchell... S. P. Browning
Bob Burnett... Stanley Parker
Lucinda, Aunt Mary's Maid...
Bess L. Bell
Joshua, Aunt Mary's Hired Man...
Norman Bowman
The Girl From Kalamazoo...
Edith Grimes
Daisy Mullins... Mary D. Lane
Mr. Stebbins... Howell Richardson
James, the Butler... Chas. Downing Eva, the Maid... Bess Parry

Following the play a dance will be given in the auditorium of the school building. The hours will be from 10 to 1 o'clock. The music will be furnished by the Maysville Saxophone Trio. A lunch will be served by several girls of the Senior Class.

The annual class play of the Seniors always attracts a large crowd and this year will prove no exception. Every member of the cast has his or her part in excellent shape and it will be hard to decide the star of the evening.

CHAUTAUQUA GUARANTORS

Will Meet in the Chamber of Commerce This Evening at 5 O'clock to Lay Plans For the 1917 Program.

A meeting of the guarantors of the 1917 Chautauqua will be held in the Chamber of Commerce this evening at 5 o'clock for the purpose of talking over plans for the program of the season.

The Lincoln Chautauqua will be used this year instead of the Redpath as has been used for the past several years, in fact, since the first one in Maysville. This company is a new one to Maysville, although it is one of the oldest in the United States.

Plans are under way for making the 1917 chautauqua the best ever held in Maysville. Fifteen hundred dollars has been pledged the chautauqua people and the guarantors are responsible for the amount.

One of the attractions promised the Chautauqua lovers this year is the light opera, "The Bohemian Girl." Another feature will be the appearance of either Richard Pierson Hobson or Vice President Marshall in Maysville.

MRS. WILLIAM COBURN

Mrs. William Coburn, of Plainsville, Ohio, a former resident of this city, died at her home yesterday following a short illness according to word received by relatives here. She leaves her husband and several children. We could not learn the funeral arrangements.

Mrs. D. N. Peebles, who was operated upon at the Hayswood Hospital on Tuesday, is reported as improving nicely this morning.

WANT WORK

Two Young Men of the University of Cincinnati Anxious to Spend Summer on Some Farm.

We are in receipt of the following letter from Mr. Frank S. Newell, a Maysville man, now connected with the Cincinnati Post, which is self explanatory:

Dear Mr. Mathews,
Cincinnati, Ky.

There are two brothers, pupils of The University of Cincinnati, one 18 years old and the other 21 years old, who desire work on a farm for the summer. They have made arrangements with the faculty of the University so as to be able to stay on the farm until late in the season, in fact until harvest is over.

These boys have had very little farm experience but are hard and willing workers. They work their way thru school and help support their mother and sister. They will take a job with some farmer, who will give them a clean room board in addition to a fair salary.

These boys are of a good family and clean cut young men. I know that there are many farmers in good old Mason who want reliable help.

Now Mr. Mathews I am trying to do my "bit" toward placing these young men. Do yours by publishing this letter as it might be the means of some farmer doing his.

Refer any replies to me, in care Cincinnati Post, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Thanking you, I am

Yours very truly,
FRANK S. NEWELL,
c-o Circulation Department.

Rev. Pilch will preach at the German Lutheran Church Sunday morning at 10:30.

FOUNTAIN TURNED ON

The fountain on Market street was turned on yesterday. But it will take close inspection to find the stream of water which is supposed to spurt from the top of the statue. A horse will drink more water in two minutes than that which runs in ten, due perhaps to the high cost of living.

Farm For Sale

As executor of Mrs. Mary Eliza
Caldwell, deceased, on

THURSDAY, JUNE 7, 1917,

what is known as the Raymond Pike.
It adjoins the lands of Mrs. Mattie Raymond, J. D. Peed's heirs, Mrs. R.
P. Hopper, Mrs. Susan W. Rees and Mrs. Styles and contains about 200 acres. It has on it a large tobacco barn, small cabin, stable and other outbuildings. The principal residence was recently burned down.

Full possession will be given on March 1, 1918, as it is already rented until then. The purchaser will be
